VERY REV. WILLIAM J. MURPHY, S.J.

In the unwanted (and unwanted) quiet of corridor and campus the colleges are permitted to lapse into moods of reflection that are good for the soul.

Knowledge has a tendency to puff up a man, but the hall-mark of wisdom is humility. The colleges have learned that they are expendible; they are becoming more wise.

In the national consciousness there is a strong front of animosity against the colleges, especially the liberal arts colleges. To the mass of the people—including many college graduutes — the colleges are the preserves of the privileged. There is an uneasy suspicion that they have not done their work well.

The colleges are confident that since Pearl Harbor they have made a magnificent demonstration of patriotism. In an unbelievably short time, and with great skill, their activities were shaped to meet the national needs. The contribution in services, if reduced to a financial equivalent, would be found to be very great.

The colleges have been admirably silent on this matter.

Many colleges have awakened to the realization that open-minded search for truth is not the same as a paralyzing scepticism. There is the firm middle ground between indoctrination and doubt. Cartesian doubt was methodic, not psychological.

Catholic colleges — all Catholic education, indeed—have held true to their course. They have no fundamental transformation to make. Revelation is a sure guide in education just as it is in every sphere of human activity. The highest natural development of personality is achieved most surely and most swiftly when the natural objectives are framed in those manifested by Revelation.

In spite of the current eclipse of higher education, there is still embedded in democratic thought a deep faith in the power of education. On this foundation the colleges will rise again after the war to a position of strength, unequalled in their history.

alumni Day

All roads lead to the Heights, Monday, June 7, when the graduates return for Alumni Day. The traditional Boston College-Holy Cross ball game will not be held because Holy Cross has dropped baseball this year. However, the Athletic Association has promised a contest with another team. The game begins at 4 o'clock.

Leading the parade of the classes to Alumni Field will be 1918, followed by 1923, 1928, 1933, and 1938.

William J. O'Sullivan, '14, chairman of the program, has announced that the banquet will begin immediately after the game. of the food situation, reservations must be made in advance.

The annual business meeting follows the dinner. Representatives of the anniversary groups will report their Class gifts. Rector will address the gathering.

The recipient of the William V. McKenny Memorial Medal for continuous and outstanding loyalty will be announced.

Jeremiah W. Mahoney, '21, will preside.

FROM THE DESK OF ALUMNI PRESIDENT

The officers of this Association are gratified by the number of graduates, both in the services and at home, who contributed to the Loyalty Fund the past year. Your continued support of this cause is urged, so that it may enable your officers to serve you efficiently.

Let me again repeat the urgent request of Father Rector as reported in the issue of the ALUMNI NEWS for June of 1941: "Let us all pray daily that this school to which we are deeply devoted may enjoy God's special protection during the days ahead."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Constitution of your Association, Article 14, provides that the Committee on Nominations and Elections shall consist of delegates chosen by each local chapter.

The majority of the officers of the local chapters and a large number of the membership are now in the service of their country, and the chapters have not been in a position to choose delegates for membership on the Committee. For this reason your Board of Directors has voted to suspend this year the holding of the annual election.

1890-1913

The fifth annual dinner of those who graduated no less than thirty years ago was held at the Hotel Kenmore, Monday evening, May 10. John D. Drum, '90, was the only representative of the earliest class, 1890.

Louis A. White, '10, was chairman. Principal speakers were Father Rector and Jeremiah W. Mahoney, '21, president of the Association.

About thirty-five attended.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Rev. Francis J. Coyne, S.J., succeeds Rev. Maurice V. Dullea, S.J., as Faculty Director of the Athletic Association.

No statement has been issued as to whether football will continue in September.

Pat O'Brien and representatives of the motion picture industry were in Boston this winter obtaining material for the life of Major Cavanaugh, soon to be filmed.

COMMENCEMENT

The sixty-sixth Commencement exercises were held February 28, at the Immaculate Conception Church. Two hundred and ninetyseven candidates received their degrees. Father Leonard Feeney, S.J., addressed the second war class.

SERVICE MEN

In an attempt to help you meet other Boston College men, the Alumni Association has subscribed to the "College Registration Service." Centers are being established all over the United States and in foreign countries where you may register. B. C. men will be able to find out just who are in a particular locality. As these registration centers increase, you will be notifed about them in the NEWS. In addition to the United States, centers will be opened in Honolulu, London, Algiers, Brisbane and Graduates not in the service are also invited to register so that service men may meet them.

The following centers have already been opened. Go to them.

THE WAR

At the Heights the College is beginning to take on the appearance of a deserted village. It is a lonesome spot. In September there was an average enrollment of about 1500 students. As the year progressed the students began to receive letters from the President of the United States, mailed from their respective draft boards. In December the Marines called a group to active duty. At the end of February the Class of 1943 graduated, and immediately afterwards it entered, almost to a man, the various branches of the armed forces. Many in the lower classes were called up at this time by the Army Reserve. In April another group left for the Army Reserve. About a month ago the students in the Marine Reserve and the Navy Reserve (except those in V-7) received notices telling them to be ready to report for duty about July 1. At the present rate there will be about 400 students left at the end of this school year.

Is the Army coming to B. C. soon? The authorities do not know. The facilities of the buildings have been inspected. The College is on an approved list. But the Army has not indicated when it will assign 500 soldiers to the Heights. However, the Jesuit Fathers are ready whenever the go-ahead signal flashes. Their bags have been pocked for some months, for St. Mary's Hall will be used by the Army as a dormitory.

Where will the Jesuits go? They will remain at B. C. teaching the soldiers, and will be housed in different buildings, including the Business School and the Museum on Hammond Street. Other buildings available are the Philomatheia Club and the rectory of St. Ignatius's parish on Commonwealth Avenue. Only one or two rooms will be retained in St. Mary's Hall for administrative purposes.

THE LADS OF YESTERDAY

They were our lads of Yesterday
The elm trees sing it low;
And the night wind echoes it
mournfully
In the purple twilight's glow.

They were our lads of Yesterday With laughter, love and fun; The young hands heavy with pen and scroll Are light with sword and gun.

Where tarry our lads of Yesterday?
In silence the answer is told;
An empty chair in the lecture hall,
A blue star turned to gold.

Parade of the Classes

JOHN S. KEOHANE

12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill

The prayers of the class are requested for the repose of the soul of Barney MacDonald, the former president of our class. Apparently in good health, Barney was found dead in bed. Cangratulations to Fother Eric Mac-Kenzie, who has been appointed postar of St. Paul's Church, Wellesley. As usual, Ed Sullivon gave a stimulating talk when he spoke before the Pere Marquette Cauncil, K. of C., in South Bastan, April 18.

The Class will get tagether some time in June. You will be natified.

PHILIP J. BOND

18 Houston Street, West Roxbury

Fother M. Joseph Nartan has been appainted administrator of St. Calumbkille's Parish, Brighton. He is planning an evening garden party if a certain member of the class will sanction a dim-out garden party.

Rabert J. Burns has three sans in the armed forces. Robert, Jr., is a lieutenant in the Armared Farces, Camp Cook, California; William, a staff sergeant in the Air Force, Fresna, California; Thamas, a sergeant in the Air Force, Siaux Falls, Sauth Dakata.

Charles P. York, Bab's rival down through the years, claims the distinctian not anly of having a son in the Yankee Divisian, 101st Infantry, Camp Gardon, Georgia, but of having three granddaughters.

Thomas F. Galvin spent several weeks this winter at Miami Beach and has returned a new man.

Thamas F. Gavin is naw in charge of the Persanal Property Tax Divisian at City Hall.

John J. Wolsh's san, John, Jr., is a cadet in the Army Aviation School,

Major Thomas A. Donnelly, warking aut of 177 Court Street, Baston, cavers all New England in his wark of Civilian Defense training. Tam has written several manuals of instruction along defense lines. His little secretary, Patricia, is naw in the eighth grade.

George S. Hennessy is at the head of the pramational list for appointment to Head of Department, Modern Fareign Languages, in the Boston high schools. Gearge has campleted two years as principal of the East Baston Evening High School.

We were sarry to learn of the death of William Fitzgerald. He died May 4 in Flushing, L. I. He had been Assistant Treasurer and Assistant General Manager of the National Retail Dry Goods Assaciation.

JAMES L. O'BRIEN 41 Pandred Circle, Jamaica Plain

Our sincere sympathy to Fother "Tom" McLaughlin on the death of his mather, and to "Joe" Sheehan on the death of his sister.

Our Class suffered a real lass in the deaths of Pat Geary and Phil Dwyer. Two real gentlemen-men very devoted to their families and men very layal to B. C. Gad rest their sauls and may their memory be a real inspiration to men of 1916. The fallowing is an excerpt fram a resolution an the death of Philip R. Dwyer that appeared in the "New England Jaurnal of Medicine":

"Dr. Dwyer was af sterling character, and although enduring many physical handicaps, he was never heard to complain. An able diagnostician, his technical skill was af high arder. His engaging smile was ane of his autstanding characteristics; his spantaneous wit partrayed his buayant spirit. He was 'aur kind' of a man: his life was an inspiration to

If any member has a san planning to enter B. C. this fall and he's interested in the 1916 scholarship, get in tauch with Al Brennan af B. C. H.

JOHN J. MAHONEY

7 Avery Road, Wellesley, Mass.

rissioned a captain in the Army last February, having been assigned to the Transportation Corps.

While speaking of service in the Armed Forces, our new generation is making itself felt. 'Dan' Daley's oldest boy is an ensign in the Navy since last October. Is stationed at Bremerton, Wash., and reports for sea duty this month. Doing communication work. 'Jae' Dee's oldest lad, having completed his freshman year at the Heights and aiding the band which was the best ever, has enlisted in the Army. There may be others, but aside from Jack Elliott's boy who is in the Naval Reserve though still in class at the Heights we have heard no report.

'Bill' Reardan is now with the LaPointe Machine Tool Company in Hudson on the inspection staff. Still makes his home in Saxonville where we recently had the pleasure of meeting his wife and two children. He spoke of a friend who saw George Murray in New York not long ago. Is still in the cement business. No new information about George, of whom we have heard little in recent years.

Our condolences are extended to 'Tom' Craven whose mother died in February.

'Charley' Smith never looks as though he needs a winter vacation yet takes one each year. Just back from a stay in New Orleans. Says he frequently sees 'Pete' McKenna.

Clarence Harrigan has put himself at the service of the Massachusetts Civilian Defense Corps and is instructing several groups in the handling of firearms.

Paul Water's boy, Paul Water, Jr., is a student at the Heights.

1918

JOHN M. O'LOUGHLIN 631 Fellsway, Medford

Father Joseph Benard is stationed at St. Hugh's Church, Roxbury.

Francis Frazier is serving his second term on the Newton School Committee.

Dr. Jahn Creed is a practising surgeon in Haverhill.

Lt. Philip D. Shea is with the 8th

Service Cammand, Signal Branch, Dallas, Texas.

Gerard Newman continues as salesman for the John Nagle Company at the Fish Pier.

Anyone heard from Tom Sheeran lately?

Charlie Riley is still haberdashering. Up in Lowell we find George Haggerty an attorney in the Assessors' Department, and also Track Coach for Lowell High.

Dick Walsh is manager—U. S. Employment Service of the Manpower Commission in Haverhill.

Jack McCarthy is Divisional Merchandise Manager at Filene's.

John Raman is Assistant Supervisor of Benefits in the Division of Emplayment Security.

Father Harry O'Connor has been appointed pastor of St. Augustine's Church, South Boston.

Paul Lynch visited Boston recently. He is in the Army, at O. C. S., Miami Beach.

Don't forget — we are twenty-five years out this June. Let's' have one grand reunion on Alumni Day, June 7. (Ed. Note—The candolences of the Class are extended to John O'Lough-lin, whose mother passed away this winter.)

1919

FRANCIS J. ROLAND

11 Beacan Street, Boston.

Basil Kelley has added his to the other lace curtains of West Roxbury. Basil is submaster of the Patrick T. Campbell District Sschool and for two years has been master of the Michelangelo Evening School. Basil still displays the same quiet generous loyalty that marked his college years.

Referring again to West Roxbury, we meet Henry Gillen ance in a while. Henry is still the pride of the editorial staff of the Boston Post.

We learned with considerable satisfaction that Gus Whalen is doing a great job as Head Master of Revere High School, and that Superintendent John Cronan is ably guiding the Taunton School System.

While Fred Shea was crossing a Boston street a few weeks ago, he was struck by an automobile. Result—a broken leg for Fred, and a wrecked auto. Our condolences to the driver. Dannie Shea, one of our Navy men in World War I, is doing his bit in this conflict by instructing in physics at the Boston Latin School.

Among our successful physicians we find Frank Dufault of Athol and Vic Rochette of Lexington — both busily engaged in a very successful practice. Not long ago we met Father Ed Dauglas, S.J., now a learned and dignified member of the faculty at the "Heights". But he can"t fool us. We remember him as President of the Athletic Association and as a Varsity half-back and dash man. He moved faster in the long ago.

1920

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY
30 Garden Street, West Roxbury

Navy has been seeing a lot of service.

Father Ed McDonough is a captain in the Army, stationed in Providence. Bill Dempsey's bay entered the Army April 12. He has been assigned to Camp Robinson, Arkansas. He was a Freshman at the College.

PFC Gerard B. Cleary was a recent visitor. Home on furlough from Camp Atterbury, Indiana, Gerry kept the Class officers regaled with his adventures. Watch for his post war book entitled, "Life Begins at 45 in the Rear Rank."

FRANCIS L. FORD

26 Ellison Avenue, Dorchester

For the twenty-first successive year, the Mass and Communion Breakfast of the Class was held on Laetare Sunday, April 4. In a previous issue of the Alumni News it had been cancelled, but a few spirited members of the Class, under the leadership of Jae Crane, refused to let the tradition die, and twelve of the foithful presented themselves after a campaign of telephone calls and belated postal cards. So that, from now an, this affair will be an annual gathering even if only a few attend.

After Mass at the Heights, the group retired to the University Club where breakfast was served. Those sitting around the table were Mott Butler, Tony Comerford, Ben Daly, Ed Dullea, Harry Mullowney, Walter Dimmock, Dr. Larry McCarthy, Joe Crone, Joe Comber, Cece McGoldrick, Tom Eccles, and Frank Ford.

Al Bedard, our ever-loyal New York member, chided us slightly for our late notices about Laetare Sunday, but took the sting away by adding that he could not have attended, anyway.

Many members of the Class will be pleased to hear that Myles McSweeney, assistant city editor of the Boston Daily Record, has returned to his desk after an illness of over three months. Myles is the father of six talented youngsters.

We offer our deep condolences to Cecil McGoldrick in the death of his father which occurred since our last appearance here. Cecil, himself, has entered the retail meat business in charge of that division of a popular market on Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, Massachusetts.

Don't forget Alumni Day, Monday, June 7. We should be there in a large body as tables will be reserved for us. As the twenty-year Class, we should hold some of the limelight, and our contribution to Father Rector and Boston College should be a worthy one. You have heard from us about this from another source. Do whatever you can. You are the doctor.

FLASH! Lieutenant James G. Rear-don of the Navy is now assigned to 150 Causeway Street, Boston. He is living in Auburndale.

Lt. Eddie Killian, formerly of the Lexington, hasn't been heard from late, but Mrs. Killion has been staying with her mother at Jefferson, Massachusetts.

Those of the crowd whom I've seen have nothing but the highest proise for John Dooley's excellent piece of auditing on the Class insurance since 1926. Do you "skeptics, critics and Doubting Thomases" still want proof that our plan is workable, and that the purpose is worthwhile? Remember, if you disagree with his figures in any way, contact Johnnie at 43 Roslin Street, Dorchester-Col. 9801. Only 8 years are left to go, the easiest ones we hope, to achieve a $12,-500 gift for the College. What we want and need is your current payment, your 1943 payment,, in Jim Hickey's hands now. He's at 9 Herbertson Road, Jamaica Plain.

Bob O'Doherty is now Major O'Doherty, Chief Surgeon at Pine Camp, Rome, New York.

Our wartime dinner at the Kenmore

1927

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN 51 Presentation Rood, Brighton

Coffee to those who sent in news. Yes, my bluff was called. My problem now is, how to moke good? If I mail an 18-point coupon to the party, I am opening myself "to a $10,000 fine (optimists) or imprisonment, or both." If I ship the butter, I risk its spoiling en route.

Proud South Boston friends, neighbors and well wishers sent Fr. Jim Dunford a solid gold benediction set last March 17. He is still doing on outstanding job in the Solomons as chaploin.

Henry Farley, John Lynch and Eddie Scollins are still teaching in the Boston public schools.

Fr. Fronk Moron, S.T.L., of St. Cecilia's Church, was the preocher at the "Tre Ore" exercises at St. Clement's Church in the Back Boy on Good Friday.

John Eaton is a Petty Officer in the Novy. After receiving his basic training at Newport he was assigned to London, England. Recently he was transferred to the Noval Operating Base in Londonderry, Northern Ireland. Next July 12 John will have to make an important decision. I hope there will be no trouble.

The prayers and sympathy of the Class of '27 go to the family of Jahn J. Doherty who died early in March. Jahn was a teacher of French at the Memorial High School in Boston.

The condolences of the Class are extended to Denny McNamara, who lost his mother.

Lt. Charles Hayden is at Freeman Field, Seymour, Indiana.
